

COUNTER ENQUIRIES

Information given by council officers to oral enquiries is, of necessity, on the basis of facts as presented and the limited time to research a particular question.

Council makes no warranties on such enquiries.

It is in the interests of the enquirer to obtain a written determination before making decisions in matters such as land purchase, building or development projects.